Now open: A Citizens Rights Center for people with disabilities in the Chareidi sector!

We are pleased to announce the opening of the "Lev Bakehila" Citizens Rights Center – a joint project of the Lev Academic Center (JCT) and the Center of Family Counseling of Ezer Mizion.

The Citizens Rights Center assists people with disabilities in the Chareidi sector in understanding and realizing their rights.

Assistance is available in a wide range of areas including:

Housing • education • accessibility • health services • welfare (Bituach Leumi) etc.

The center addresses the needs of people with all kinds of disabilities: physical, sensory, mental, emotional, cognitive and developmental.

Services are provided free of charge and in complete confidentiality.
