Schreiber LevTech Entrepreneurship Center initiates Project TAKE ACTION

- Take Action has announced its first initiative called “Hatikvah B’Yadenu (Hope is in Our Hands).”
- Hatikvah B’Yadenu will distribute positive stories from across Israel.
- All of us are inundated both with gut wrenching news and word that huge masses of Israelis - and Jews worldwide - are uniting to support our civilians, our soldiers and our nation.
- Schreiber LevTech will start getting out the good news!

JCT Mourns

JCT extends deepest condolences to members of our extended community who have lost dear ones in recent days.

* Bracha Maskalchi, on the loss of her brother Rabbi Netanel HYD and nephew Refael HYD, as a result of a missile attack on Netivot.

* Hallel Choshen, on the loss of her sister Hadar.

May their memory be a blessing.

M'Evel L'Yom Tov – From Mourning to Rejoicing

- JCT hosted a Brit Milah for a baby born to a young married couple living on campus.

- The new father, who served in an elite Combat Engineering unit in the IDF, was to begin studying electrical engineering this week.

- Following the Brit, he returned to his base and joined his unit to fight for our country.

- May the young couple be blessed to raise their son to Torah, Chuppah, Mitzvot, and Maasim Tovim in peace!

Support JCT's Emergency Campaign

The JCT President's Chesed Fund helps students - and will be extended to staff and faculty - who are in acute distress. We are proud that we already have a Chesed Fund, we must now strengthen it.

We have already provided aid to two students who needed urgent assistance. We must be ready to do more.

We are looking to build a USD 3 million emergency fund. After the war, any unused funds will be rolled into an endowment for the President's Chesed Fund to help students in the future.
